This year-round 14-day, 13-night safari, tailored for July to September, immerses you in the peak of the Great Wildebeest Migration. During these months, massive herds of wildebeest and zebras surge northward, culminating in dramatic river crossings at the Grumeti and Mara Rivers, pursued by predators like lions and crocodiles. Expect thrilling sightings in the Northern Serengeti and Masai Mara, alongside diverse wildlife and cultural experiences. The itinerary combines scenic drives and flights for efficiency, with classic lodges and luxurious tented-camps offering full-board meals unless noted. It begins and ends in Nairobi, suitable for international flights on Day 1 arrival and Day 14 departure.

Day 5: Gibbs Farm Activities and Ngorongoro (Thursday)

Morning activities at Gibbs Farm, such as vegetable harvesting, coffee roasting, or birdwatching, followed by a fresh organic lunch. Drive to the Ngorongoro rim (about 2 hours) for crater overlooks and evening relaxation. Formed approximately 2-3 million years ago when a massive volcano exploded and collapsed inward, the crater is often called the "Garden of Eden" due to its lush, self-contained ecosystem. The crater floor features diverse landscapes, including grasslands, swamps, forests, and Lake Magadi—a soda lake that attracts flamingos. It's part of the larger Ngorongoro Conservation Area, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1979.

- Location: Gibbs Farm to Ngorongoro
- Accommodation: Ngorongoro Serena Lodge (1 night)
- Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner
- Highlights: Farm-to-table experiences, crater rim views, birdwatching

Days 12-13: Masai Mara National Reserve (Thursday-Friday)

Fly to Masai Mara National Reserve (about 1 hour). Masai Mara is a top destination for safaris boasting the highest concentration of wild animals in the world, with over 40% of Africa's larger mammals. By June, early migration arrivals bring herds to the plains with the migration lasting through October. Enjoy Big Five sightings and optional hot-air balloon rides (~$500 per person).

- Location: Masai Mara National Reserve, Kenya
- Accommodation: Mara Serena Lodge (2 nights)
- Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner
- Highlights: Emerging migration herds, lion prides, balloon safaris over plains
